

Santander Scholarship Guidance Notes

The Santander Scholarships (funded by Santander), aims to assist the most academically able students from leading universities to pursue a degree programme at the University of Huddersfield.

Up to three scholarships will be awarded each year to students from the following countries:

- Bangladesh
- Brazil
- Canada
- Ghana
- India
- Nigeria
- Pakistan
- Russia
- United States

Eligibility and general regulations

- The scholarships are to be awarded to three self-funded, full-fee paying students applying to study on a full-time undergraduate and postgraduate taught course at the University of Huddersfield.
- The scholarship is only applicable to one year of study.
- Current students at the University of Huddersfield are not eligible to apply for this scholarship.
- Applicants must have already applied to the University of Huddersfield and received an offer of a place on a full-time undergraduate or postgraduate taught degree course at the University.
- Applicants who are in receipt of any donor funding or government/company sponsorships will not be eligible for this scholarship.
- The scholarship scheme is competitive and all applications will be considered on merit.
- Applicants must demonstrate outstanding academic performance, which they are able to evidence within their course application. The University reserves the right to request further evidence where necessary.
- Applicants must have a formal qualification in English language (i.e. IELTS, TOEFL or other acceptable measure) which meets the University's and the course entry requirements. This will normally be IELTS 6.0 or an acceptable equivalent test with no lower than 5.5 in any single band.
- The submission of falsified or counterfeit documents will disqualify the applicant from consideration. Personal statements which are found to be plagiarised or copied will also result in disqualification.
- Incomplete applications will not be considered.

- The deadline for submission of applications is 7th of July 2017. Applications will not be considered after this date.
- The successful applicants will be notified by 28th of July 2017.
- The decision of the awarding panel is final. We regret that we are unable to enter into correspondence relating to unsuccessful applications.
- By accepting a scholarship, the applicant agrees to participate in publicity initiatives and gives consent to his/her photograph appearing in marketing literature including webpages.

Guidance for applicants

- Please check the application deadline and read the notes regarding eligibility for the award.
- Please ensure all the required paperwork is submitted as indicated under the applications procedure.
- Please note that only the successful applicant will be contacted. If you have not heard from us by the notification date you may assume that your application has not been shortlisted.

Application procedure

To apply for this scholarship you will need:

- A copy of the University offer letter indicating that you have been offered a place on a full-time undergraduate and postgraduate taught degree course starting in September 2017.
- A copy of your curriculum vitae.
- To supply an application letter indicating why you should be awarded a scholarship. Indicate how obtaining the degree will contribute to your own ambitions and the social or economic development of your country.
- A reference from your last place of study confirming that you have achieved the qualifications identified in your curriculum vitae.
- To submit your application by 7th of July 2017. Applications received after that date will not be considered.
- All applications should be sent to the international.office@hud.ac.uk